

ANNOUNCEMENT

OXFORD CURSILLO WEEKEND #20

It is with great joy that we announce that Oxford Cursillo Weekend #20 will take place at Ripon College, Cuddesdon, near Oxford from Friday 23rd to Sunday 25th May 2025.

It is a long time since we hosted a Cursillo weekend and, as things stand, we do not have the personnel in key Servant Community positions or sufficient individuals with staffing experience to do so. We are therefore delighted that our friends at Peterborough Cursillo have accepted our invitation to support us in all that has to be done in advance, and they will provide the Lay Rector for the weekend and some additional members of the team.

The Weekend may seem a long way off, but there is much to be done, and the planning needs to start now, especially as some people, whether Staff or Pilgrims, will need to book their time many months in advance. Here are some initial ways in which you can support Oxford #20:

1. Please start praying for the planning and preparations
2. Please pray for the Lay Rector, Staff and potential Pilgrims as they emerge
3. Please put the dates of the Weekend in your diaries. We will be in touch later in the year with further details regarding ways to support the weekend.
4. Read the Sponsorship Guidelines and start praying and thinking of potential Pilgrims.

In making a booking at Ripon College, Cuddesdon, and coming to an agreement with Peterborough Cursillo, we are acting in faith. Please join us in celebrating this major step forward in our rejuvenation programme.

Ultreya!
